ABOUT THE LOCATION

Marataba, a 21,000-hectare (52,000-acre), privately managed section of the Marakele National Park is uniquely situated where lush bushveld gives way to the Kalahari sands in South Africa's Limpopo Province.

As a contractual National Park, Marataba is one of South Africa's most innovative conservation models. From the vision of an iconic president to the unique public-private partnership that exists today, the focus is firmly on protecting the area's diverse flora and fauna through modern and hands-on conservation practices.

ACCOMODATION BEFORE AND/OR AFTER TRAIL

It is optional, however highly recommended to stay at Explorers Camp, one of the refurbished Marataba Conservation Camps for 2 days after the trail.

Cost: R2 680 per person per night sharing (Dinner, Bed and Breakfast).

Plus conservation Fees: R750 per person per day

TRAIL INFORMATION

Guided and mentored by Massimo Rebuzzi.

Massimo's passion for nature and walking in the wilderness over the last 17 years has inspired him to share his knowledge through a breathtaking 4-day primitive trail. The trail is a deeply humbling experience where you reconnect with your body, mind and soul within nature's elements in Marataba, a 21,000-hectare (52,000-acre), privately managed section of the Marakele National Park.
